Founded in 1986, this family business has gained a place for itself throughout the generations thanks to the knowledge and mastery passed on from grandfather to grandson. Altaş Arms is a testament to its enduring tradition of enduring quality, innovation and unwavering dedication to its craft.

As Altaş Arms, we always aim to move forward in the hunting rifle industry by producing not only reliable but also precise hunting rifles. Our commitment to research and development combines with the unremitting pursuit of excellence. Every shotgun we produce is a masterpiece of engineering, combining advanced technology with traditional craftsmanship.

It continues its world-class production in semi-automatic, pump-action, bullpup and magazine fields. As Altaş arms moves towards the future, it continues to build on the legacy of its founders and respect the traditions of craftsmanship and innovation passed down through generations. It is committed to meeting the evolving needs of its customers.
